WEDDING BELLS FOR EIGHT YESTERDAY

STATE LABOR MEETING ADJOURNS: WILL MEET IN SANTA ROSA 1915

STOCKTON, Oct. 10.—The fifteenth annual convention of the State Federation of Labor has adjourned and will meet again in Santa Rosa in 1915.

The convention before adjourning instructed its officers to introduce an anti-capital punishment bill at the next session of the Legislature.

In addressing the convention, Congressman John T. Nolan said that labor could solve all of its problems just as soon as it gained the balance of power in the halls of Congress and that labor could take this power any time it decided to stand together.

Supervisor Andrew J. Gallagher urged labor not to forget its loyal friends outside the labor movement who are ever ready to sacrifice themselves for the cause of labor.

State Labor Commissioner John F. McLaughlin, after enumerating the splendid achievements of the Johnson administration for the benefit of the wage-earner, advised the delegates that if they desired a continuance of such a condition they should reward labor's friends by returning to office Governor Johnson and his colleagues who have befriended labor.

The convention reached final adjournment without a single factional fight to disturb the spirit of harmony and peace that has been a feature of the convention.

WHO'S WHO, WHEN AND WHAT

Hotel Civic Center.—The hotel in this age is as near a necessity as any other business in operation, as the stranger must first of all seek accommodations. The house that properly looks after its guests seldom lacks for patronage, for many men travel about this and that hotel. About the first topic of conversation when travelers meet is the hotel. Such questions as, "Have you been to Richmond lately? Well, when you go there? Be sure and stop at Hotel Civic Center. Everything is first-class, the rooms are elegantly furnished, hot and cold running water and electric lights in every room, and the festive board, we think, would please even the most fastidious epicure. It is very centrally located at 2229 Macdonald avenue and the rates, moreover, are most exceptionally low and very reasonable for the elegance, style, comfort and service of this high class hotel. Room and board can be had at $30 per month; single meals 35 cents; rooms 50 cents and up per day." Mrs. J. H. O'Neill is the pleasant proprietress, who opened up here three months ago and formerly resided at Santa Barbara. She is an important acquisition to Richmond and we venture to say no place hereabouts can surpass Hotel Civic Center for a delightful home. For reservations phone Richmond 162.

Elsie & Elsie conduct Point Richmond's best store. They deal in dry goods, clothing, ladies' and gents' furnishings, accessories, millinery, hats, shoes, trunks, valises, etc. They are located at 111 Washington avenue and have operated here twelve years. Few metropolitan stores carry a nicer general line of goods than this house and their prices challenge all honorable competition. They carry everything to wear for men, women, children and infants.

Elsie & Elsie have grown up with the town and are among the pioneer enterprises here. Elsie and A. Elsie are each specialists in their department. Mr. Elsie is buyer and salesman for the men's department and Mrs. Elsie is buyer and saleslady for the ladies' and infants' department. This house does everything in its power to encourage home patronage and the motto of the Daily News is to encourage the "Patrons of Home Enterprises." Elsie & Elsie are among the town's most highly esteemed and progressive citizens. They hail from Bonnie Scotland as the land of their nativity. Personally they are very pleasant business people to meet and in who's who command distinction. Their phone is Richmond 3531.

The Mr. Blalock Garage is situated at 1121 Macdonald avenue and is the place to go for "autos for hire," storage, supplies and general garage repairing, etc. This garage is one of

SLAUGHTER OF FLIES IS REPORTED

According to the report of the department of health for September, 226,000 flies were killed during that month. Pullman lost 46,000, Point Richmond 59,000 and Richmond 122,000. To date 3,096,000 flies have been slaughtered without mercy. During the month there were 28 births, of which 16 were males and 12 females. Only 14 births were reported for the same month last year. There were 16 deaths. There was one case of diphtheria, 73 for measles and 2 cases of chickenpox were reported in the month.

Remarkable on his report, Dr. Blake declares that the measles epidemic is practically gone from the eastern portion of the city and that the city will soon be rid of the disease.

COLUMBUS DAY AT EXPOSITION

Vikings, sea monsters, pirate ships, mermaids and water clocks will help in the merry-making today at the Exposition grounds, in celebration of Columbus Day.

People from all parts of the country and from all neighboring towns and cities around the bay will be on hand.

Governor Hiram Johnson and three former mayors will be among those who will speak.

A program of events, commencing at 10 a. m. and continuing until 3:30 p. m., has been arranged, and the day's celebration will be made one of the most noteworthy in bay city history.

WELCH IS MADE HEAD OF ELKS

Word was received last night from Modesto, the seat of the Big Elk Conclave, that Hilliard Welch of Stockton had been named president of the State Reunion Association of Elks.

W. M. Abbot of San Francisco was chosen first vice president, Frank N. Schoonover of Berkeley secretary, Frank Smith of Pomona treasurer, Rev. H. H. Powell of Berkeley, chaplain, and C. S. Bassman of San Pedro sergeant-at-arms.

Belgian Soldiers Awaiting Attack

THE BATTLE OF HOFSTADE.

Belgian soldiers in the deep trenches along the railway, which they guarded against the Germans at the Battle of Hofstade. The soldiers on the field are enduring much hardship for the continuous rain has filled the trenches with water.

$20 Voted To Grant Recall Bender family By Machinists

At a meeting of the local Machinists' Union last night a donation of $20 was voted to the Bender family. The money was turned over to the editor of the Daily News and will be given to Mrs. Bender today.

The Daily News takes this opportunity of thanking the generous members of the organization for the Bender family.

ANTI-WAR PAPER IS CIRCULATED

A committee composed of well known Socialist women of Richmond are busy circulating copies of the women's anti-war edition of the American Socialist.

The paper contains many articles of interest to women concerning the European situation, and special effort is being made by the women to get the paper in as many homes in the city as possible.

The committee is composed of Mrs. Alice Melville, Mrs. Jennie Spencer, Mrs. Alice Carman and Mrs. Virginia Georghegan.

GERMANS ARE CELEBRATING

Today is German Day at Shell Mound Park.

Richmond Germans are planning to spend the day in a celebration under auspices of the German American League of San Francisco.

A fund will be raised to aid the German wounded soldiers, and the widows and children in the old country.

John Herman, president of the league, will be the German orator of the day. Judge George H. Bahr will be the English speaker.

The Pacific Statesbund and other German organizations, including the Hermann Bone, will participate in the day's celebration.

TERMINAL OFFICE MOVES

The Richmond Terminal office, which was burned several months ago, has moved to temporary quarters at 295 Macdonald avenue.

The place formerly occupied by the Terminal was burned down and destroyed on September 28.

WOMAN LEADER

L. A. Nelson and wife left last night for a few days' visit at Red Bluff.

Grant Recall Tobe Probed?

That investigation of the recall election in the Nineteenth senatorial district by which Edwin E. Grant was retired from the Legislature may result from the charges made by Grant of irregularity, is the opinion in political circles today. Ex-Senator Grant claims that his supporters have evidence of frauds.

WHARF PLANS ARE APPROVED

An important step has been taken for the future of Richmond by M. Emanuel, president of the Ellis Landing and Dock Co., in approving the plans and specifications for the construction of the bulkhead and wharves of the Ellis Canal, directly adjoining Richmond's great inner harbor.

Bids will be asked on Wednesday by Engineers Haviland and Tibbitts, Alaska Commercial Building, San Francisco, and the work will be completed with all possible speed, as the raising of the largest portion of the tract is nearing completion.

The Ellis Landing and Dock Co. has employed two clam shell dredges to make the length of the canal and two suction dredges are now widening same. Another clam shell dredge will start work very shortly for the purpose of erecting levees for the balance of the bulkheading, to be done in the immediate future.

DELEGATE IS BACK HOME

Fred Hochman, Richmond delegate to the State Federation of Labor Convention at Stockton, returned in Richmond last night.

He was in attendance during the entire session and was actively engaged, being a member of the resolutions committee, and having many matters of importance to the local union to take up at the convention.

Hochman was elected vice president from Contra Costa county.

While there he made an investigation and reported that merchants were daily dropping from the ranks of the U. S. M. He said that there was little doubt now that the fight was won.

While in Stockton Hochman also had an opportunity to see the excellent report of the committee of commerce in connection with the dynamite question.

Four Richmond Couples Are Pledged For Better or Worse In Three Different Towns

Messrs. Moore, Slattery, Pulse And La Selle All Claim Brides

With the Richmond younger set hardly recovered from the news of the romantic double wedding of Chas. Pulse and Walter La Selle, both confirmed bachelors, comes the news of the marriages of more popular Richmond couples.

Yesterday at Martinez Louis Moore bought himself a license to wed Miss Helen Hunsinger. Moore is 21 and his bride 19. It doesn't seem but yesterday that they graduated from high school.

Miss Hunsinger is probably one of the best known and best liked girls of the city. And there are those who declare that she is the most beautiful of all the local girls.

They met in the drawing class of high school. She was drawing an uninteresting kettle and he was sketching something similarly unromantic. Thereafter both of them became intensely interested in art and never missed a session.

CLUB FAIR IS SUCCESS

The successful and well attended Richmond Club fair closed last night. While not drawing as big a crowd as the two previous nights, a large number of people attended and enjoyed the beautiful exhibits.

The Japanese booth and tea garden, provided over by Mrs. Conwell, was one of the chief attractions. Mrs. Wetmore had loaned her beautiful palms to enhance the garden effect.

Another point of interest was the golf house, in charge of Mrs. J. H. Gibb. Scores of pretty dolls of all sizes were for sale.

The bakery booth was in charge of Mrs. O. Smiley. In the baking contests eight valuable prizes were given to the winners.

LIBRARY CLOSED

The Public Library announced yesterday that the doors of the institution would remain closed tomorrow, in commemoration of Columbus Day.

All the pupils of the school watched with interest the development of the romance. To them the news that Louis is to marry Helen (it, indeed, he hasn't married her already) will prove no surprise.

Moore refused to state last night where the ceremony was to take place.

"You can't pry it out of me," he said, "and you might as well abandon the cross-examination right now."

He denied that the knot had already been tied.

But that wasn't the only successful feat of Kid Cupid yesterday.

Patrick Slattery, connected with Slattery Brothers' free market in this city for many years, married Miss Blanche L. Silva in the bride's home at Stogo. Slattery is 23 and his bride confesses to 24.

Having clinched the above two couples, the winged and chubby little breaker of single blessedness hurried over to Sacramento and polished off the job of tying up Charles Pulse and Ruth Rickabaugh and Walter La Selle and Hester Rickabaugh.

The four left immediately after the ceremony on a tour of the southern part of the state in Pulse's automobile. The double honeymoon will last for two weeks, when the couple will return to live in Richmond.

Every single one of the four brides, or almost brides, are beautiful girls, their husbands are young and fair enough looking. And they are all coming back to Richmond to live.

That a movement is on foot to drive Macdonald avenue with orange blossoms is denied. But it wouldn't be inappropriate.

BILLETT TRIAL POSTPONED

The trial of Nathan Billett, formerly a sewing machine agent of this city, was again partially heard in the local police court and again postponed until Thursday morning.

Billett has threatened to make some startling exposures, which he claims are not to his wife's credit. A divorce case is now pending.

BIG SESSION OF 2700 CLUB WILL BE HELD TODAY

At 10:30 this morning the 2700 Club will meet in the Building Trades Temple in one of the most important sessions since its organization.

Special invitations have been sent out to all of the unions, requesting delegates to be in attendance.

A committee has been working during the week, inviting union men to be present. Although some of the unions were not seen personally by the committee, the members asked last night that word be sent to all of the unions, inviting delegates to be present.

It was announced last night that the custom of allowing only union men to enter would be enforced.

One of the main purposes of the meeting will be to elect officers for the coming term. The eight-hour law and other amendments will also come up for action.

Every holder of a union card in this city is urged to be present and assist in the transaction of the important business.

The meeting of the 2700 Club this morning will be of especial interest to all union men.

A committee from the club has spent a large part of the week in visiting all of the local unions, and extending an invitation to send delegates to the meeting this morning.

Word was sent out last night that all locals not visited by the committee could consider themselves included in the request for the attendance of all of the union men possible.

A WHAT'S WHAT AND WHO'S WHO OF RICHMOND DAILY DOINGS; WITH COMMENTS

Pasting That Label On Our Daily Bread

The city health officer went into a restaurant the other day and was served bread with a gummed label pasted on it.

It wasn't ornamental, it wasn't sanitary, and it wasn't of much advertising value.

The Doctor put the label in his pocket and straightway delivered an ultimatum to the manufacturers of the bread, Young & Swain, to stop the practice, and obey the city health laws.

Yesterday The Observer went into a restaurant, and he got bread with one of the fancy labels printed all over it. He talked to several other people who were served with the labeled bread.

All of which reminded him of the story of an Irishman who was jailed for not paying a bill.

The lawyer said, after Pat had told him of the reasons for his incarceration in the Hooe Gow, "Pat, they can't keep you here for that."

"But they're doing it," declared Pat.

And they were.

And they can't use labels on the bread.

But they're doing it.

Several Richmondites have taken an ardent dislike to The Observer.

A Camel Can Go Three Days Without a Drink

Richmond is looking forward to three whole days without water. Contractors are looking to the lowering of the 24-inch main on Pullman avenue.

The Observer would give a penny for the thoughts of the People's Water Company officials as they gazed on the order from City Engineer Chapman commanding that the work be done.

The thoughts would probably run something like this: "Shall we keep up the bluff?" "What's the use?" "Guess we'd better wait a while before we answer."

The Observer has sometimes gone the whole period of an hour without hearing mention made of the Humane Society row.

THE BIG DAY.

Nothing is worth while today but the game at Petaluma. Business worries, politics, the war in Europe, have for a day become unimportant. Indeed, the outcome of the struggle between the Braves and the Athletics is a thing of slight interest compared to the Richmond-Petaluma game.

Most of us have a wrong focus on life, anyway. We put too much importance upon things that are trivial and overlook things that are really important—like today's game.

Some men have such an abnormal viewpoint that round dollars can hide from their sight the beauty of the sunset, the gold of California's hills, the eye-filling pulchritude of Richmond ladies, and even prevent them from seeing today's titanic struggle.

Luckily for the world, that type is as rare almost as the dodo bird. The men of that type achieve wealth often enough and big houses and fine raiment, but they pay dearly for their success.

Today we can forget to save the nation. Hiram Johnson and Captain Fredericks and Senator Curtin are none as important today as Mr. Howard French, manager of the Richmond baseball team. The struggle on the champaigns of France, the hills before Antwerp, the Russian steppes and the valley of the Drina sink into insignificance. The reference to the steppes is probably bad geography and we use it only for euphonic reasons.

Forget, then, the cares of world and family. Forget that your hebdomadal pay envelope is anything but plethoric, and to call it so could be possible only with the aid of a amboyant imagination. Forget that John Smith said slurring things about you last week and that Bill Jones is a black hearted scoundrel and owes you $2.50.

Forget that tomorrow the desk or counter, glass office or work bench, waits for you. Remember only that today the sun shines (we pray that it does) and that on a smooth green field in Petaluma two sets of skillful and nervy young men are fighting for the honor of their respective cities.

Baseball is the cleanest game in the world. Football changes, boxing is ever so often attacked by the reformers, horse racing is kicked out by state governments. But baseball changes only to get better and more interesting.

THE DELUSION OF "ARMED PEACE"

Most people realize that Europe went to war, not because the Kaiser or the Czar or the King wanted war, but because the huge population of the neighboring nations had been educated to THINK war and to prepare for it.

If there had been no standing armies and no navies there could have been no war, despite the royalty.

In the light of the events in Europe the contentions of the American militarists are startling in their stupidity.

One points out that of every five officers in the armies of the warring nations, two have been killed. "The men are left with few leaders," he says. "To avoid such a situation for ourselves, more West Points should be established and more officers educated and trained for the emergency."

His idea is about as intelligent as spreading the floor of a room with gunpowder as a trap for a man who may come through smoking a cigarette. The resultant explosion would probably prevent the cigarette smoker from ever repeating his offense, but it would play the devil with the room.

Instead of more West Points we ought to abolish the one we have.

CHARITY.

The Bender family is happy. The little fellow that has diphtheria is well on the road towards recovery. The pantry is full of provisions. Little faces that were thin and sad looking have become fuller and smiles have taken the place of sadly incongruous lines of worry.

Mrs. Bender, happy that her boy is getting better and that her babies are no longer deprived of bare necessities, thinks that Richmond is a good place to live after all.

It won't be long now before the father will draw his salary and the Bender family will be able to make the struggle for existence by themselves.

Charity is a trying business and especially so is newspaper charity. To publish the woes of a family to the world seems indelicate, for progressive though we may think ourselves, we haven't progressed beyond the point where poverty is the one great crime that society refuses to forgive.

But the Bender case was an extraordinary one. The quarantine coupled with an empty pantry was a combination that had to be adjusted.

"SEEKING" PEACE IN STOCKTON.

There is no startling news value in the headline of a morning paper which declares that the unions of Stockton are seeking peace with the Merchants, Manufacturers and Employers' Association.

The unions have sought peace from the start. They wanted no trouble and when they refused to strike the M. & M. locked them out.

Peace negotiations do not by any means indicate defeat for the unions. The whole object of the war started by the M. & M. was to smash the unions; their right of existence was denied.

Peace negotiations can mean but one thing and that is that the unions are recognized. When the M. & M. does that it admits defeat.

SURPRISE FOR THE PEOPLE OF RICHMOND

It is a surprise to learn that one of our pioneer merchants, Mr. A. A. Wintree, the clothier of 106 Macdonald avenue, is to discontinue his line of men's clothing. Starting next Thursday, October 15, he will place his excellent $7000 stock of men's suits and overcoats at the mercy of the public.

In the future Mr. Wintree will carry a complete line of men's furnishings, boys' clothing, etc., of the most up-to-date obtainable. And for men's suits and overcoats he will handle M. Farn & Co.'s made to order clothes exclusively.

EIGHT BIG ACTS AT PANTAGES

Eight splendidly varied acts of high class vaudeville is promised in the new bill at the Oakland Pantages for the week starting Sunday afternoon. The bill embraces a symphony orchestra of 20 soloists, a charming musical skit with special scenery, an aerial act, a pair of cyclonic comedians, a troupe of trained dogs, monkeys and ponies, a one-act comedy, a clever mimic and motion pictures. For those musically inclined Chiatfrelli's superb symphony orchestra should be appealing. The organization has been a feature at big expositions and large parks, where they gave the entire entertainment, yet Manager Pantages offers them to his patrons as but one act in eight.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES BY SCOOP

RICHMOND OUT OF RACE; CENTERVILLE-HAYWARD TO PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP

STANDING OF THE CENTRAL
ALAMEDA COUNTY ACADEMIC ATHLETIC LEAGUE TO DATE

|             | Won. | Lost. | Pct. |
|-------------|------|-------|------|
| Hayward     | 3    | 1     | .666 |
| Centerville | 2    | 1     | .666 |
| Richmond    | 1    | 2     | .333 |
| Livermore   | 1    | 2     | .333 |

Playing in hard luck and against superior weight, the championship aspirations of the Richmond football squad were sent a-glimmering yesterday afternoon when they dropped the crucial game of the C. A. C. A. league season to the rugger of Hayward high to the score of 3 to 0. The game was the hardest that the locals have ever played in, and it was the superior playing and strategy, accompanied by a long continued smile of Dame Fortune, that won the game for Hayward.

The game was largely attended by local townspeople and boosters.

The players were well and enthusiastically supported by the girls' and boys' rooting sections, which was formed on the southside line of the Nicholl gridiron.

The first half was started with Day of Hayward kicking off. Brown received and made a good gain before kicking for a touch. The line-out resulted in an indifferent gain, and the ball soon went into the scrum. Hayward obtaining it in the scrummage. Halfback Creelman then started the play, which was used numerous times, of passing to Day at first five, who had used a quick, long and accurate kick for touch. He did this repeatedly and made most of Hayward's gains in that manner. From a scrum near Richmond's goal, left wing Tyler secured the ball from a ruttied scrum play and went over for the only try of the game. Day failed to convert. Score, Richmond 0, Hayward 3.

In the second half, with field elevation, and the sun in their favor, the Richmond squad were several times on the verge of scoring. One occasion, where the scrum was on Hayward's five yard line, the ball did not go into the scrum and was kicked by their wing forward into safer territory. Referee Monroe of the U. of C. admitted afterward that "Ruhses" had a just kick coming and that he hesitated too long before blowing the whistle, was the only reason that he had not ordered it over.

The Hayward team won the hearts of the local team by their fair playing, with the exception of a few fellows, of course, and they were unanimous in declaring them the fairest and cleanest team they had met. Richmond's lineup was regular, except that Casey replaced L. Walters in the last half and Boquet took Jones' place at full.

Special to Scoop.

CENTERVILLE, Cal., Oct. 10.—Centerville today defeated Livermore on the local high school's field to the score of 11 to 0. The Centerville fifteen swept all opposition from before them and scored apparently without effort. The complete disorganization of the Livermore team was surprising, even Sangmaster, who usually plays a spectacular and effective game, failing to make any stand against the locals.

The Centerville team is considered to be better organized than when it met Richmond last Saturday. By winning today's game Centerville qualifies for entrance to the championship to be played on October 24.

It developed yesterday after the game that if Richmond had won the game they would have undoubtedly been dismissed from the league, as she is only in it on trial, and must be very circumspect in her behavior, such as winning too many games, etc.

Small pleasure in that, but that better than no consolation.

Richmond now has a population of approximately 22,000. We have room for 100,000 more. Help get that 100,000.

"Elks Will Win"—French

At 9:45 sharp tomorrow a steamer will leave the San Francisco Quarry Company's wharf with close to 500 Richmond fans and fannettes, bound for Petaluma, where the Richmond Elks are going to slaughter an aggregation of near-ballplayers.

To get to the wharf take the Macdonald avenue car to the Standard Oil works and transfer there to a special car that will take you to the boat. The boat will leave on time and the late ones will be left behind.

The Richmond Concert Band will play plenty of dance music on the trip to Sausalito. Plenty of girls will be there to dance with.

Four hundred horns have been supplied by the Home Laundry Company and they will be used to smash the echoes.

In case Pop Arlett should sprain a wrist or fall overboard, the management will use a young pitcher of reputation named McMullen, who, while pitching for the Ambrose Tailors here three weeks ago, held our boys to six hits in that ten-inning tie game. Remmer, a St. Mary's College graduate, and who played with the Sacramento Coast League team, will be held in readiness for the possible incapacitation of Catcher Cleek.

Both teams are confident of winning and one of 'em must be away off its base. It's a cinch that that one isn't the Elks.

"We're going to win," declared Manager French last night with a smile of confidence.

TOMORROW IS THE DAY!

ELECT HERMAN TULLER CHICKEN INSPECTOR BY LARGE MAJORITY

Following an all night session of ballot counting, Herman Tuller, handsome and popular Standard Oil employee, has been elected Chief Chicken Inspector.

The tellers, vote tellers, none of 'em any relation to Herman, were all utterly exhausted before the count had been completed. Seven billion ballots were carefully compiled.

Julius Steifvater, who was leading Friday, has congratulated the winner. He declares that he'll do some inspecting, even if he hasn't been elected. Charlie Brown is sickened with disappointment.

There isn't any need of giving the number of votes Herman polled. You wouldn't believe us.

Iema Samhandwich Buried Yesterday

As the last shovel of earth was heaped over the hole wherein reposed the once famous sporting writer, Iema Samhandwich, a dolorous sigh was raised by the gigantic throng of local sports who had come to see him off.

Iema had been a pretty faithful sporting scribe after all. With tears in their eyes, they forgave him for some of the bum steers he had tipped them to.

Yes, mates, with tear-dimmed eyes, they stood over the little mound which sheltered his lifeless body, and related some of the acts in his life which had won him a host of friends among the local sporting element.

Just as the fans turned to leave, a shrill wail was heard far in the distance.

As the mob which had assembled turned their eyes heavenward to see from whence the noisiness came, they beheld a craft of the air swooping down upon them.

It landed, and out stepped an almond eyed, yellow skinned, heathenish looking fellow, a dead ringer for Iema.

After the shock of seeing the similarity of the new arrival to the lately deceased sporting scribe, a gang of sports rushed up to find out the cause of the wailing newcomer's existence.

"I am Imnota Samhandwich," he declared, "brother to your little friend Iema. We love each other, and I've come to help you see him off on his long journey."

Then he fainted from his long journey.

When he came to, and had received some eats and drinks, he spent a couple of hours confabulating with the local Elks and gazing over the beauty spots of our city.

Imnota Samhandwich declared that he would stick around for a couple of days, to see the Petaluma game, and said he might hand out an opinion or two after the game was over.

That erudite and famous German savant, Wilhelm Vahsberg, suspected of being directly responsible for the death of Iema, is being searched for by the police of all the big cities of the world.

The Teacher Who Saw Beyond Her Books

She lived in Berkeley—became interested in Richmond. Result: she bought lots 11 and 12, block 1, in Burg Bros. Nicholl-Macdonald avenue Business Center Tract; bought them on monthly terms, total price $4000.

That was eighteen months ago. Six months ago she sold the lots—for $6500. She had at that time paid on them, altogether, $895 in cash.

$2500 profit in one year—282 per cent a year on the money invested. That was HER share of the "Million Dollars"—the total profit of those who have bought Richmond property from Burg Bros., Inc.

More than that: the man who bought these lots is to improve them at once. He, too, sees into the future; he, too, agrees with us that

CALIFORNIA PLAYER WINS SAT. GAME FOR BRAVES

Holding the Athletics down to two hits, "Big" James, Placer county boy, who at one time played in the California bushes and has played against Richmond teams of the past, won the second game of the world series for the Boston Braves.

Up to the first of the ninth Boston had registered no runs and Collins had garnered one of the Athletics' two hits with an infield smash.

In the first of the ninth, after Barry was out at first, Deal whanged a two-bagger over Strunk's head. He stole third. James fanned, and Deal scored on Mann's hit. Mann got to second on a passed ball. Evers walked and was out at second, Barry taking Cather's smash and tossing it to Collins.

Philadelphia failed to score in the last of the ninth and 20,000 bughouse fans swarmed out of the gates of Shibe Park, Philadelphia.

Here's the statistical story of the battle:

REDMEN AND
C. W. A. GAME

REDMEN AND C. W. A. GAME HERE TODAY

The long talked of return battle between the Red Men and the California Wine Association boys will be fought this afternoon on the First street diamond.

For many weeks both teams have been rather anxious to take a whack at each other, and the game will draw a large crowd of interested fans.

The Calwa team will bring a bunch of their home reapers to cheer them on to victory, and the local warriors will spend the morning getting their bunch of enthusiasts together and in training to assist vocally in the winning of the game.

PIRATES BEATEN BY ALL STARS

The Pirates were conquered on the baseball diamond yesterday morning by the All Stars by a score of 10 to 3.

The game was played on the First street grounds.

The All Stars line-up included Parker of Cheek's Outlaws, Childs of Richmond Elks, O'Rourke of the Red Men and some whose names have not yet reached the fame of the more shining stars.

The Pirates' line-up included Brown of Winehaven, Barry, Kirby Wright and McCormick.

Childs, Moore and Reynolds Rowe were the batteries for the All Stars.

Prouse and McCormick were the batteries for the Pirates.

WHO'S WHO?

the best equipped ones of Richmond for all round service. L. Catobus, head of the mechanical department is an expert machinist and there is little about auto repairing that he is not master of.

Schrader & Lucas are proprietors. Mr. Lucas was in the plumbing business seven years prior to launching out in the garage line, and is a master machinist and mechanic. He is the genial general manager of the enterprise. Mr. Schrader is associated with Mr. Lucas financially in the business, but devotes his energies to his mammoth furniture store, located at the corner of Macdonald avenue and Seventh street, and which is Richmond's "pioneer" concern in this line. Mt. Diablo Garage has the agency for the Studebaker automobiles and other standard machines. Their phone is Richmond 431. When you want an auto phone 431, or expert service drive your machine to the Mt. Diablo Garage, 1121 Macdonald avenue.

R. McWhorter's Grocery is located at 344-346 Richmond avenue and is one of Richmond's finest grocery and provision enterprises. Mr. McWhorter has operated here ten years and his fine establishment at the Point makes trading a pleasure and eating a delight. A fine stock of staple and fancy groceries, cured meats, cheese and fancy delicacies, bakery goods, fruits and vegetables are carried and everything is as spotlessly clean and dainty as the daintiest housewife's pantry.

The fine window display of aluminum goods should not be overlooked, also china, glassware, agateware and kitchen ware is carried here. Mr. McWhorter employs eight people and operates three delivery wagons. He is a live booster and enterprising business man and highly esteemed citizen. In Who's Who he commands distinction as we note brief mention of those who are adding lustre to the annals of Richmond's history.

A Pearson's Gent's Furnishings Store, 309 Twenty-third street, near Macdonald avenue, is one of the newer enterprises of Richmond, established one year ago last June, but is rapidly becoming an important factor among the mercantile concerns of the city. Mr. Pearson has followed a mercantile career for 28 years. He clerked in Canada's largest business house, the well known T. Eaton & Co.'s department store, and is a salesman of wide and valuable experience. He has also traveled on the road as a drummer. He is, therefore, able to buy goods right and goods bought right are said to be half sold. Mr. Pearson is also a singer of note and is a valuable acquisition to Richmond's social set and constructive energies. He is a well informed "man of affairs" to meet and merits distinction as we note who's Who. He has lived under the "Starry Banner" 30 years and was born in Great Britain.

J. Semas is one of the "old timers" of Rust. He is located at the corner of the Key Route, Boulevard and Fairmont avenue. He specialized in farming and stock raising a quarter of a century ago in this same locality where today he is a big dealer in construction material of sand, gravel, etc., for building sidewalks, roads, sewers, etc. Mr. Semas was born in Portugal. He is a steady, substantial, forceful and reliable citizen, who enjoys an AI patronage among contractors and officials who favor a man capable of delivering the goods to order, promptly. He takes contracts for furnishing sand, gravel, etc., for building sidewalks and teaming work. He is one of Rust's busiest citizens. He is, moreover, pleasant and a highly esteemed "man of affairs" by all who know him, and he has one of the pleasant homes in the vicinity. He is a good example of industry and perseverance.

E. L. Dearborn & Son conduct a flourishing grocery, fruit, and provision store at 326-328 N. Second street, between Macdonald avenue and Nevins street. They have operated here over seven years and are usually kept on the gallop all the time attending to their patronage. Besides a first class stock of staple and fancy groceries, they also handle cured meats and tinware and agateware, flour, etc.

Mr. L. L. Dearborn was born in Maine. E. M. Dearborn is a native son of California. He is a graduate of the San Francisco high school and the Oakland Polytechnic College. These gentlemen have valuable gold mining interests in Mariposa county, where they spend a considerable portion of time looking after their properties.

The Fairmont Monumental Works are located at Rust at the corner of Fairmont avenue and Liberty street, near the Sunset View Cemetery. Here the finest monuments in granite and marble are carried and there is no finer goods in the state. They are conducted by E. W. Evans, who has operated here three years. Mr. Evans is a son of California's "pioneer" monumental dealer, who conducts the Petaluma Monumental Works, and has operated there for over 30 years. Associated with Mr. Evans Jr. is Geo. R. Jeffrey, an expert designer and sales manager, who has many beautiful samples to select from. The designing and lettering are made to order. Call or write when you contemplate securing a headstone, or monument. Among their many samples on display at their works are monuments in both foreign and domestic granite, including the beautiful Wisconsin mahogany granite.

Hotel Randall at Pullman is conducted by C. B. Randall, who has been a resident here 12 years and has operated Hotel Randall three years. He formerly was with the Standard Oil Company for some time. Mr. Randall came to California in 1882 with his father, of course, who was one of the pioneers. In the "early days" he worked for the S. P. Ry. in construction work between San Jose and Gilroy. He was born in Iowa. For a good reasonable place to eat, drink or sleep when you go to Pullman, go to Hotel Randall. Mr. Randall believes the best is none too good for the Irish and all others as well.

B. Boorman is a native New Yorker. He crossed the plains overland in the "early days" and landed here in this valley 55 years ago. He secured a Spanish grant of 160 acres, which he farmed for many years, where Pullman now stands. He still owns three acres and a half and fifty or sixty lots and one of the nicest homes in Richmond at Pullman. He has traveled quite extensively, but said when interviewed, "California for me first, last and all the time." Boorman's addition to the city of Pullman is one of the nicest locations here for property and is very central. His fine home is nearly opposite Hotel Randall at Pullman.

The Stage Lumber and Hardware Company are manufacturers and dealers in all kinds of mill work, including doors, sash, pine and redwood lumber, etc. They also handle hardware, builders' material, lime, cement, paints, oils, glass, and deal in wood and coal as well. They have been established at Stage thirteen years. W. H. Johnston is president of the company and his son, C. H. Johnston, is manager and has operated in this capacity two years. He is ably assisted in conducting the business by his brother, Byron Johnston, assistant manager. They are both native sons of the Sunset State of the Golden West. Their phones are Berkeley 5045 and Richmond 3391.

W. G. Wise is the expert "knight of the anvil," located at 1023 Macdonald avenue. He is an expert in all its branches, having followed the trade 29 years next month, to be exact. He is a native Californian. He spent ten years in South America and at one time was the owner of fine coffee plantations there. Revolutions among the natives impressed him to return to his native land, and he now thinks "California is good enough for me." Mr. Wise is, as his name implies, he is well posted on horseshoeing, resetting rubber tires, doing general iron and wood work in the general blacksmithing line. He is a genial young man to meet and guarantees AI work in every particular.

The San Pablo Hotel, conducted for the past 42 years by Mrs. E. B. Masterson, and one of the landmarks of California for hospitality, is now under the management of M. Anderson, her son-in-law, who married Miss Josephine Masterson about six months ago. Mr. Anderson is a substantial young Scotchman and was formerly with the Standard Oil Company for the past five years. Here friends, patrons, strangers, tourists and local people will receive the same kindly and courteous service under the new management of the son-in-law and daughter as formerly. Mrs. Masterson is not as active as in her palmy younger years, and about three months ago enlisted the good services of Mr. Anderson as the active manager.

The Richmond Cyclery and Machine Shop is located at 101 Macdonald avenue and has been established three years. It is conducted by G. Poesch, proprietor, and Earl Corey, manager. They are exceptionally well equipped for business either in the repairing, selling, supplies, or handling new business. They are agents for the Harley Davidson and the Excelsior motorcycles and the Pierce, Dayton and Savage bicycles. They have bicycles and motorcycles for sale and rent. They do autogenous welding of castings, and experimental work, and carry a very complete line of high grade sundries. Remember the name, The Richmond Cyclery and Machine Shop and the number is 101 Macdonald avenue.

The Pioneer Model General Merchandise Store is located at 122 Macdonald avenue and is the headquarters for clothing and gent's furnishing goods. It is conducted by T. Farlinger, who has operated the establishment eight months. Mr. Farlinger was formerly the proprietor of the "Square Deal" Hardware store here. Twelve years ago he owned a fine farm in New York state on the border line of Canada and owing to pulmonary symptoms his physician advised him to go West. A real estate man in the West advised him to go to Lake county. He headed to Lakesport and spent several years there in business and got as sound as a dollar. Learning of Richmond he came here and besides a flourishing business, owns 6 houses and 13 lots. He was born in Canada.

Barbikas Bros. conduct the White Rose Candy Store, Ice Cream Parlor and Grocery Store at 2223 Macdonald avenue, near 23rd avenue. They deal in the best fruits and imported groceries, and are doing well. "Things are very good and successful" and there are more hopes for Richmond than any place else and I hope all citizens feel the same as I and boost all together for Richmond," said Mr. C. Barbikas, manager, when interviewed. These gentlemen were born in Greece, but have lived many years in California, and under the "Starry Banner." When you want anything in this line give them a call, or phone Richmond 1063.

The Richmond Abstract and Title Company Inc. are nicely situated in their fine new brick home recently erected at a cost of $5000 at 22nd and Macdonald avenue. The plant has the finest set of books, records, titles, abstracts, etc., in Contra Costa county and there is a forty foot vault in conjunction with their magnificent office rooms, for the safe keeping of all records. Chas. G. Baker is the enterprising manager, who was formerly at Martinez, the county seat, seven years in this same line, prior to locating here recently. A. Kelly is the secretary. Associated with these gentlemen are over 30 of Richmond's leading business men, really operators and bankers. It is a "winner from the word go."

The Farmers' Free Market is situated at 134 Macdonald avenue, corner of 2nd, and is headquarters for fruits, vegetables, produce, poultry, eggs, ham and bacon, etc. It is conducted by F. Davis and F. Fannestad, proprietors, who have operated here one year. Their place is a market for the farmers, where they can sell, and for the citizens of Richmond, where they can buy fresh farm produce, fruit and vegetables, etc., at the lowest prices. Their phone is Richmond 7581.

Max Korn is located at Stage Junction and is an enterprising live stock dealer. He has operated here ten years and deals in cows, calves, hogs, etc., buying and selling. If you want to buy or sell, phone Berkeley 3685. Mr. Korn covers Contra Costa county and has built up a big business. He pays the highest spot cash prices and his word is as good as his bond. He was born in Germany.

C. R. Johnson conducts the Rust Grocery. He has been in business at that enterprising Richmond suburb for the past year and a half. He formerly was in the steamboating line for 20 years. Mr. Johnson believes in an AI motto, "Do your own thinking." The masses will do this in the future and use their greatest inheritance, the Ballot, and usher in "The Age of Peace and Good Will Toward All Men." Mr. Johnson was born in South Carolina.

The County Line Free Market at Rust is in charge of Wm. Rosenstrach, who is manager for S. E. Winrod, proprietor. Mr. Rosenstrach has specialized in the butcher business for the past 20 years and has conducted the above enterprise one year. This is a favorite "mart of trade" for choice steaks, juicy roasts and tender chops. For your orders phone Berkeley 4273. Mr. Rosenstrach was born in Nebraska.

J. Toussaint conducts a flourishing grocery on San Pablo road, near Stage Junction, and has operated here seven years. He carries a full line of staple and fancy groceries and enjoys a very liberal custom. He has resided under the "Starry Banner" 30 years and was born in Belgium. Progress is his watchword and in Who's Who commands honorable mention.

The Irwin & Lewis Lumber Company is conducted by D. Lewis and R. Irwin at 25th street, near the Pullman shops. They do everything in mill work to order for contractors and builders, etc. They have been established here two years and each have had about 30 years' experience in the business at San Francisco prior to pitching their tent in California's fastest growing city. For doors, screens, lumber and mill work give them a call.

Miss Lucy C. Newell is Stage's pleasant and popular young postmistress and has officiated in this capacity a little over one year. She formerly was bookkeeper and assistant postmistress with the Stage Lumber and Hardware Company three years prior to her appointment to her present post of honor. She is a graduate of St. Francis De Sales College at Oakland and was born in California.

H. Gillespie deals in groceries, provisions, feed, notions, bread, confectionaries, etc., at Stage, where he has been in business for 11 years. He was born in Canada, but has lived in the United States of America forty years. He has been a resident here fifteen years. If all citizens in the world were like Mr. Gillespie the nations of the world could just as well beat their swords into ploughshares, for he is a believer in the "arts of peace," rather than those of war.

B. F. Sommer's Confectionery and Ice Cream Parlor is located at 2234 Macdonald avenue and is one of the nice places to drop into for stationery, candies, fresh fruit, soft drinks, ice cream, cigars and tobacco, or sundries, papers, periodicals, souvenir post cards, etc. Mr. Sommer has operated here about two years and a half. He is doing well and believes in Richmond's marvelous future. He was born in Illinois.

Van's Drug Store is located at 2021 Macdonald avenue and is conducted by A. Vansall, who has followed the drug business for the past forty years. He has been established in Richmond three years, and thirty years in California. He carries a full line of pharmaceutical remedies, drugs, chemicals and druggists' sundries, etc. He is master of his profession and was born in Holland.

Roy Moore, D. D. S., 23rd and Macdonald avenue, is one of Richmond's busiest and most efficient dentists. He has practiced dental surgery ten years and has been one year in Richmond. He is a graduate of the San Francisco College of Physicians and Surgeons in dentistry, class of 1904. He is also a graduate of the State Normal School, class '98, and taught school one year. He is a native son of the Sunset State of the Golden West.

The H. & H. Cigar Store and Pool Room are nicely situated in their new location at 2227 Macdonald avenue, where they moved into a couple of weeks ago from 2231 Macdonald avenue. Everything is first-class and a large stock of cigars, tobaccos, and smokers' sundries are carried. Besides the pool and billiard parlor in the rear is strictly modern and an AI place to while away an hour in these innocent games of recreation and amusement.

Spierach Bros. conduct Point Richmond's leading plumbing and sheet metal works. They have operated here thirteen years and enjoy the cream of the trade. They give employment to a big force in the busy season. In the early history of the town they were members of the fire brigade and R. H. Spierach served as captain for some time.

F. C. Spierach and R. H. Spierach merit historic mention here, as we note brief mention of many of Richmond's leading business men.

The Reliable Auto Livery is located at the Tenth street Garage and is operated by Peter O. Eib, who has followed the auto business for the past eight years. He has two fine cars for auto service and he also specializes in general garage repair work. He has recently opened up here and we predict for him a shining business career. He is full of energy and go and is a native son of the Sunset State of the Golden West.

M. E. Dille's Cigar Store, 201 Macdonald avenue, is the place to go for a good smoke, smokers' supplies, and the leading standard brands of chewing tobacco; also for candies, soft drinks and stationery. Besides the above Mr. Dille deals in stringed musical instruments. He has operated here three years. He is an Eagle Moore, and was born in Illinois.

—Advt.

Miss Made Sanborn has returned from Yuba county, where she has been visiting for the past three months.
